Route 101 from Fernbridge to Piercy is all 4 -lane with 4' to 10' paved shoulders, with the exception of 3 miles from the Men-Hum County Line to 1 1/2 miles north of Richardson Grove; this is 2-lane with 1' to 4' paved shoulders. Moderate to heavy traffic. Temperatures during the summer months range from 80 - 100 degrees from Redcrest to Piercy and 60 - 70 degrees at Fernbridge. The prevailing wind is from the north.

NOTES

Route 254 (Avenue of the Giants, elevation not shown)

Route 254 is a 2-lane road with basically no paved shoulders and no long grades. This is a beautiful scenic alternate to Route 101. Light, bright clothing should be worn especially on this route because most of it is dark and shaded. The redwood trees along this route are a tourists dream, so keep an extra eye out for motorists. The prevailing wind is from the north.

For shuttle service to bike trails, and other information regarding this route, please contact the Garberville Chamber of Commerce.
